

Austin Cunningham's Homegoing Service
January 30, 2009
First Presbyterian Church
Orangeburg, South Carolina

Austin Cunningham
September 5, 1914 – January 26, 2009

"This is the day which the Lord hath made,
We will rejoice and be glad in it."
-- Psalm 118:24

Austin's favorite Bible verse, hung in his kitchen, and seen every morning.

Order of Worship

Prelude.....	Mrs. Sylvia Trimmier, Claflin Saxophone Quartet
Opening Sentences of Scripture.....	Rev. Jud Jordan
Invocation.....	Rev. Jud Jordan
Remembrances from Austin III.....	Austin Cunningham III
"Just a Closer Walk with Thee".....	Mrs. Angela Blalock, Jarvis Brothers
Selected Scripture from Psalm 26.....	Joseph and Gordon Waldman
"Ave Verum" (Mozart).....	South Carolina State Choir
Remembrances from Amy.....	Amy Cunningham
"I Want to Be Ready".....	Mrs. Angela Blalock
Remembrances from Kathryn.....	Kathryn Janus
"Amazing Grace".....	Jarvis Brothers
Scripture Lessons and Remembrances.....	Rev. Jud Jordan
Congregational Hymn, "A Mighty Fortress is our God".....	Hymn number 260
Closing Prayer.....	Rev. Jud Jordan
Statement and Reading.....	Steve Waldman and Jeff Janus
Benediction.....	Rev. Jud Jordan
Recessional.....	South Carolina State Jazz Ensemble

The family expresses its heartfelt thanks to: Dr. Arthur Evans and to Mrs. Sylvia Trimmier for coordinating today's musical selections; the Saxophone Quartet from Claflin University (Mr. Bryson Borgstedt, Director); the Jazz Ensemble from South Carolina State University (Mr. Jonovan Cooper, Director); and the South Carolina State Choir (Dr. Richard Beckford, Director).